Relieving the burden

Payroll Outsourcing

At Moore Stephens we provide a fully comprehensive payroll solution that can be tailored to meet the individual needs of our clients. We are the smart choice for those seeking the highest standards in client service and excellence.

Payroll administration can be a very time consuming activity in any business and significant cost savings can be achieved by outsourcing the payroll function. The necessity to keep up to date with the annual changes in tax legislation and remain compliant with Employment Law adds to the complexity of running an efficient payroll.

Due to the complexity of employment taxes our dedicated Payroll Bureau is operated under the control and supervision of professionals in our Tax Group.

Our staff are provided with tax and payroll training on an on-going basis to ensure that we are best positioned to fulfil the payroll needs and requirements of our clients.

We place a huge emphasis on quality control and review procedures in our Payroll Bureau. All payroll transactions are subject to checking by a senior staff member who is tax trained and can appreciate the implications of a particular transaction from both the employers' and the employees' points of view.
